

TRADING TERMS & CONDITIONS

By instructing the Company to supply the Services, the Customer agrees to accept and be bound by the Company's trading terms and conditions. All and any business undertaken by the Company shall be subject to the Company's trading terms and conditions of contract which are as follows:

Definitions

1. "ACL" means the Australian Consumer Law ("ACL") being Schedule 2 of the Australian Competition & Consumer Act 2010 ("CCA")

"Carriage by Air Convention" – shall mean applicable legislation incorporating the Warsaw Convention (1929), the Warsaw Convention as Amended at the Hague (1955) and Warsaw supplementary protocols as such as the "Guadalajara Convention", Protocol of Montreal No. 4 or the Montreal Convention (1999).

"Company" shall mean Direct Couriers (Aust) Pty Limited (ABN 87 063 478 295), its employees, servants, agents, subsidiaries, associated entities, successors and/or assigns.

"Customer" shall mean the shipper (consignor), the receiver (consignee), the owner of the Goods, the bailor of the Goods or the person for whom any of the Services are arranged and/or performed.

"Dangerous Goods" shall mean such of the Goods as shall be, or become, in fact or at law noxious, dangerous, hazardous, explosive, radioactive, inflammable or capable by their nature of causing damage or injury to other goods, persons, plants or animals or to any thing including that in which the Goods are carried, handled or stored.

"Force Majeure" shall mean an unforeseeable, external occurrence affecting the rights and obligations of a party and beyond the control of and not due to the fault, omission or negligence of the affected party, such events including any act of god, earthquake, flood, terrorist attack, war or other event beyond the reasonable control of the party claiming Force Majeure. Force Majeure does not include any strike, labour dispute or industrial action which could reasonably have been prevented by the Company.

"Goods" shall mean the chattels, articles or things tendered by the Customer for the Services and shall include the container(s), unit load device(s) or other packaging containing the same and any other pallet(s) delivered with the same to the Company or Subcontractor by the Customer or for or on its behalf. Goods include goods either in transit or in storage.

"Government Authority" means, without limitation, all Government Departments with responsibility for the import and export of goods, the collection of revenue on the import and export of goods and the transport of those goods to include, without limitation, Australian Customs Service (ACS), Australian Quarantine Inspection Service (AQIS) and Australian Taxation Office (ATO).

"Perishable goods" shall mean such of the Goods as shall be in fact or law liable to deteriorate in quality and/or value and shall include, but not be limited to, fruits, vegetables, dairy products, meat, etc.

"Services" shall mean the carriage, transport, movement, packing, handling, warehousing & storage, customs clearance and/or any other service arranged or performed by the Company, pursuant to, or ancillary to, this contract with the Customer.

"Subcontractor" shall mean and include any person, firm or company (other than the Company) that arranges or performs the Services (or a part thereof).

"Valuables" shall mean bullion, coins, securities, valuable works of art and thoroughbred horses.

Words importing the singular include the plural and vice versa and words importing any gender include all genders and words importing a person include firm, corporation or other entity where appropriate.

2. Not a Common Carrier/Entire Agreement

The Company is not a common carrier and accepts no liability as such. Services are arranged, undertaken and/or performed by the Company subject only to these conditions of contract which constitute the entire agreement between the Company and the Customer. No person has the authority of the Company to waive or vary these conditions and the Company reserves the right to refuse at its sole discretion the arranging, undertaking or performing of any of the Services for any customer whether before, during or after the Service has commenced and further reserves the right to open and/or inspect all Goods at its discretion and at the Customer's expense.

3. Contracts with Third Parties

The Customer hereby employs and authorises the Company to contract with any Subcontractor and authorises any Subcontractor to contract the services of any other Subcontractor for the performance of any of the Services agreed to be arranged or performed pursuant to, or ancillary to, this contract.

4. Restriction of Claims/Circular Indemnity and Himalaya

The Customer undertakes that any claim in respect of any liability whatsoever in connection with the Services whether or not arising out of the negligence or otherwise of any other party shall be made only against the Company. If any such claim should nevertheless be made by the Customer against another party, the Customer will indemnify the Company against all consequences thereof. All terms of this contract will also be available and will extend to protect all subcontractors and every employee or agent of the subcontractor. For this purpose, the Company is or will be deemed to be acting as agent or trustee on behalf of and for the benefit of all such parties.

5. Warranties by the Customer

The Customer warrants:

(a) that it is the owner of the Goods or otherwise has the authority of the owner or person having an interest in the Goods or any part thereof to sign the Company's Letter of Instruction, other contractual document or otherwise accept and consign the goods upon and subject to these conditions.

(b) that the person releasing or delivering the Goods to the Company is authorised to sign the Company's Letter of Instruction, other contractual document and/or otherwise accept and agree to these conditions on the Customer's behalf.

(c) the adequacy of packing, stowing and suitability of the Goods for the Services contracted and accuracy of all markings and brandings of the Goods, descriptions, values and other particulars furnished to the Company for the carriage, customs, consular and any other purposes and undertakes to indemnify the Company against all loss, damage, expenses and fines arising from any inadequacy, unsuitability, inaccuracy or omission in this respect.

(d) that the performance of any Service provided or arranged by the Company to effect the instructions of the Customer in respect of the Goods shall not be in breach of any law.

6. Exclusion and Limitation of Liability

(a) Subject to the terms and conditions in this contract and mandatory applicable statute, convention or law, the Company shall not be liable for any loss or damage suffered by the Customer or any other person in respect of provision of the Services excepting warehousing and storage, howsoever caused or arising, exceeding $3,000 whether:

arising from an authorised or unauthorised act OR contemplated or unaccomplished act under this contract;
caused by the negligence and/or recklessness and/or wilful misconduct of the Company's servants, employees, agents, Subcontractors or otherwise;

a breach of contract;

resulting from, or attributable to, any quotation, statement, representation or information, oral or written, made or given on behalf of the Company or its servants, agents, employees or Contractors as to the classification of, liability for, amount, scale or rate of customs duty, excise duty or other impost or tax applicable to any goods subject of any Service;

occasioned by the Company complying with any requirement or directive of any Government Authority in relation to the Goods; occasioned by examination of the Goods by any Government Authority; occasioned by treatment of the Goods by any Government Authority (including without limitation, any fumigation or decontamination or other treatment by AQIS).

(b) In all cases where liability cannot be limited or excluded by this agreement because of mandatory applicable statute, convention or law including any legislation which is compulsorily applicable to the Company and/or a Subcontractor carrier such as a Carriage by Air Convention, the Hague Rules, the Hague-Visby Rules, or the Hamburg Rules, or adaptations thereof, [such as the Australian Carriage of Goods by Sea Act (1991), the New Zealand Maritime Transport Act (1994), or the Carriage of Goods by Sea Act of the United States (1936)] – all as amended from time to time, the provisions of the applicable statute, convention or law shall be deemed incorporated herein and any rights, immunities and/or defences therein shall be available to the Company. For the purpose of determining the extent of the Company's liability for loss of or damage to the Goods under this agreement or any mandatory applicable legislation, the value of the Goods lost or damaged is agreed to be the invoice cost value to the Customer.

(c) In all cases where liability cannot be limited or excluded by this agreement for breach of any condition or warranty in respect of the Services pursuant to statute or otherwise, the liability of the Company is limited to:

Supplying the Services again; or payment of the cost of having the Services supplied again.

(d) Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the parties shall in no circumstances be liable for loss or damage other than directly to or from the Goods, including indirect or consequential loss or damage arising from the Services performed in respect of the Goods including loss of market, loss of profit or loss of contracts howsoever caused. The rights, immunities, defences and limits provided for in these conditions shall apply in any action against the Company for loss or damage whether the action be found in contract, bailment, tort or otherwise notwithstanding any breach of the contract or condition hereof by the Company.

(e) Further without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Company shall not be liable for any loss or damage suffered by the Customer or any other person as a result of a failure or inability of the Company or Subcontractor to collect or receive C.O.D. payments from any consignees or their agents whether caused by the negligence of the Company's servants, agents, employees, Subcontractors or otherwise.

(f) No declaration of value will be made for the purpose of extending liability and the Goods will be forwarded or dealt with at the Customer's or owner's risk unless express written instructions to the contrary are given by the Customer and accepted in writing by the Company and extra charge paid if required by the Company.

(g) It is hereby agreed between the Customer and the Company that the Customer's right to compensation for any claim for loss or damage will only be maintained provided the following is strictly adhered to:

(i) Any claim for loss or damage must be lodged in writing to the Company within 7 days of delivery of the Goods or the date Services are completed, whichever date occurs first;

(ii) Any claim for loss in relation to non-delivery of Goods must be notified in writing to the Company within 7 days and a claim lodged in writing within 60 days from the date the Goods should have been delivered or the Services should have been completed, whichever date occurs first.

(h) Any right to any legal remedy of the Company or the Customer against the other shall be extinguished unless legal proceedings are brought against the other within 12 months from the date of this contract or the date the Services were completed or Goods delivered, or the date the Services should have been completed or the Goods should have been delivered, whichever date occurs first.

7. Negotiation of Extension of Responsibility/Liability/Insurance

(a) Upon negotiation with the Customer in writing, the Company may agree to greater responsibility and liability than set out in the subparagraphs (a) to (h) of the above provision upon payment of additional charges by the Customer as required. Applicable rates for greater responsibility and liability are subject of discussion and negotiation between the parties.

(b) Should the Customer not choose nor the parties agree to the Company taking greater responsibility and liability for the Services for additional charge pursuant to subparagraph (a) above, the parties agree that the Company provides a lower cost service on the premise that it has the right to limit or exclude liability and/or seek indemnity as provided for in this Agreement.

(c) The Customer should seek its own insurance cover for loss or damage it may incur. No insurance will be arranged or effected by the Company on the Customer's behalf.

8. Loading and Unloading on and from Transportation Vehicle

(a) The Customer shall be responsible for the cost of, and arranging for, the loading and unloading of the Goods on and from the relevant transportation vehicle.

(b) In the event that there is a delay in the loading or unloading of the Goods by reason other than the default of the Company or Subcontractor, the Customer shall be liable for the Company's expenses incurred by reason of the delay, including demurrage costs as notified by the Company orally or in writing from time to time or available upon request.

(c) The Customer shall provide adequate and suitable facilities and equipment for loading and unloading the Goods from the relevant transportation vehicle. The Customer also warrants that the Goods will be suitable for carriage in such vehicle.

(d) The Customer has the right to inspect the transportation vehicle before the loading of the Goods. Absent any inspection and complaint, the transportation vehicle will be deemed to be in adequate and suitable condition for the carriage of the Goods. Thereafter, the Customer shall have no rights against the Company with respect to the condition of the vehicle and the Company will have no liability in respect of any loss or damage caused by the inadequate or unsound condition of the vehicle.

9. Warehousing & Storage

(a) When presented for storage, the Customer will ensure that the Goods are securely and properly packed in compliance with any statutory requirements and recognised standards and in such condition so as to not cause damage or injury, or the likelihood of damage or injury, to the property of the Company or to any other goods, whether by spreading of damp, infestation, leakage or the escape of fumes or substances or howsoever caused.

(b) Before presentation of Goods for storage, the Customer will inform the Company in writing of any special precautions necessitated by the nature, weight or condition of the Goods.

(c) If the Customer instructs the Company to use a particular method of storage, the Company will give priority to that method but if the Company cannot conveniently adopt it, the Company may use any method of storage.

(d) If any identifying document or mark is lost, damaged, destroyed or defaced, the Company may open any document, wrapping, package or other container in which the Goods are placed or carried to inspect them either to determine their nature or condition or to determine their ownership.

(e) The Goods may at any time be stored or otherwise held at any place or at any time be removed from any place at which they may be stored or otherwise held to any other place to be stored or otherwise held at the sole discretion of the Company. In every case, whether storage is incidental or the primary Service provided by the Company, it will be provided at the Customer's risk and expense as a primary charge(s) or a charge(s) incidental to or in connection with the carriage of the Goods or any Service hereunder.

10. Termination of Warehousing and Storage

(a) The Customer or Company may terminate the agreement in relation to warehousing and storage at any time by giving not less than 14 days to the other.

(b) If the Customer is in breach of this agreement, the Company must give the Customer not less than 7 days' notice to rectify the breach. If the Customer fails to do so, the Company may immediately terminate the agreement on notice to the Customer.

(c) Should the Company terminate the agreement, the Customer shall:

pay all fees owing within 7 days; and remove its Goods from storage or pay the Company to deliver the Goods to a designated destination within 3 days of paying all fees in (i) above, failing which the Company will consider the Goods abandoned which the Company may sell or dispose of pursuant to the Sale and Disposal of Goods Clause of this agreement.

11. Customer's Indemnity

(a) The Customer shall indemnify the Company in respect of any claim, loss, damage, payment, fine, expense, duty, tax, impost, outlay, cost or other liability reasonably incurred by the Company:

howsoever caused or incurred, whether arising directly or indirectly from any Service arranged or performed by the Company and/or as a result of any breach of the terms, conditions or warranties in this contract by the Customer.

(b) Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Customer shall remain responsible to the Company for all charges (C.O.D. or otherwise) paid by the Company to any of its agents, Subcontractors or any other party or authority;

(c) The Customer shall indemnify the Company in respect of any loss or damage arising from any inherent defect, quality or vice of the Goods.

Quotations

12. Quotations for the Services are made on an immediate acceptance basis and are subject to withdrawal or revision without notice at the Company's discretion. Charges may be referred and prices quoted or displayed on the Company's website for information. These are estimates only. These may change depending on any additional service or charges/fees incurred as will be advised by the Company to the Customer and will be payable by the Customer. Goods will be reweighed/remeasured to determine the chargeable weight. If this weight is more than that amount originally charged to the Customer, the Customer will be recharged based on the correct weight for which the Customer will be liable.

13. Authority for Payment of Expenses/Duties/Inspection and/or Release of Goods/Information

The Customer authorises the Company in effecting the Services, but with no obligation on the part of the Company, to:

(a) pay any duties, taxes, imposts, outlays, costs or charges in respect of the Goods and/or Services and

(b) allow inspection and/or release of the Goods or any information and/or documents of the Customer, the Goods, the Services or relating thereto as required by government authorities, and the Customer shall indemnify the Company in respect of any disbursement, expense, cost, loss, fine or damage reasonably incurred by the Company in doing so and releases the Company from any liability in connection therewith.

14. Responsibility for Fees/Charges

(a) The Customer shall pay the Company for all fees rendered and any charges or costs it reasonably incurs in respect of provision of the Services. This includes the payment of fees/charges which the Company is advised or agrees will be paid by a third party which then fails to so pay. Such fees/charges shall be deemed fully earned as soon as the Goods are loaded and dispatched from the Customer's premises, otherwise delivered by the Customer to the Company or Subcontractor or on receipt of the Company's invoice whichever occurs first. Fees and charges shall be payable in accordance with the term stated in the Company's invoice or if not stated, will be payable on delivery. All fees and charges are non-refundable.

(b) The Customer agrees that it shall not defer or withhold payment or deduct any amount from the account of the Company by reason of any claim it alleges against the Company.

(c) The Customer agrees to give the Company cash deposit or other security as the Company may deem sufficient to cover estimated general average contribution which shall be adjusted according to the York-Antwerp Rules. The Company shall be under no obligation to exercise any lien for general average contribution due to the Customer.

(d) The Customers shall pay the Company interest as liquidated damages at the Company's bank overdraft rate plus 5% on overdue fees or charges invoiced. Provision of Credit and/or Services by the Company to the Customer may be suspended by the Company at its own discretion if fees and charges invoiced are overdue or otherwise.

15. Routes/Procedures/Method

If the Company is instructed by the Customer and agrees to use a particular method or type of Service, the Company shall give due consideration to the method or type designated but shall at all times have the right to choose or vary such method or type of Service or route and procedure adopted in respect of the Service performed. The Customer hereby authorises the Company to substitute alternate carriers or Service providers without notice to the Customer.

16. Lien

The Company shall have a particular and general lien on the Goods of the Customer and any documents relating thereto for all sums payable by the Customer to the Company. The Customer agrees that Company has the right to:

exercise a general lien over all Goods and documents of the Customer in respect of any moneys owed by the Customer to the Company and sell the Goods or a portion thereof and direct the proceeds of sale to payment to the Company of moneys owed by the Customer to the Company and remit any balance remaining (if such exists) to the Customer;

provided that the Company will notify the Customer and all other relevant persons of its intention to sell the goods in accordance with the requirements of mandatorily applicable legislation. If no such legislation applies, the Company will exercise its right to sell the goods or a portion thereof after a period of 7 days from the date which the Company notifies the Customer that it is exercising its rights of sale.

17. Valuables, Dangerous Goods

(a)(i) Except as agreed in writing, the Company will not accept Valuables or Dangerous Goods for Services arranged or performed by the Company. Should the Customer nevertheless deliver any such goods to the Company or cause the Company or Subcontractors to handle or deal with any such goods otherwise than as agreed in writing, the Customer (not the Company) shall be liable for any loss, damage or cost thereto or consequent thereon whether direct, indirect or consequential and howsoever caused and the Customer shall indemnify the Company from and against all penalties, taxes, duties, claims, demands, damages, costs and expenses arising in connection therewith.

(ii) Any Dangerous Goods may be destroyed in the sole and absolute discretion of the Company or any other person in whose custody they may be at the relevant time. In the event that the goods are destroyed or otherwise dealt with as aforesaid, the Company shall bear no liability and the Customer shall indemnify the Company from and against all costs and expenses with respect thereto.

(b) The Customer undertakes that any of the Goods referred to in (a) above (including their covering, packaging, containers and other carriage devices) shall be distinctly marked having regard to their nature. The Customer further undertakes that the Goods are packed in a manner adequate to withstand the ordinary risks of any Service having regard to their nature and in compliance with all laws and regulations which may be applicable with respect to any Service. The Customer shall indemnify the Company against all claims, losses, damages or expenses arising in consequence of any breach of this provision.

(c) The Customer's compliance with (b) above in no way reduces or limits those rights afforded to the Company under (a) of this clause.

18. Delivery/Completion

(a) The Company is authorised to deliver the Goods to the consignee or its agent at the address nominated to the Company by either the Customer, the consignor, the consignee or their agents and it is expressly agreed that the Company or Subcontractor shall be deemed to have delivered the Goods in accordance with this contract when the receiving person at the nominated address accepts delivery by way of signing a delivery docket/document, consignment note or other method including the Company or Subcontractor's driver recording the date, time and name of the receiving person.

(b) If the nominated place of delivery shall be unattended or if delivery cannot otherwise be effected, the Company in its sole discretion may at its option either deposit the Goods at the nominated place or store the Goods at the risk and expense of the Customer, both of which will be deemed to be delivery of the Goods under this Contract.

Dates and time specified or requested for completion of carriage or any other Service are estimates only and the Company shall not be liable for failure to complete carriage or any other Service on such date(s) or time(s).

19. Sale and Disposal of Goods

(a) The Company and its Subcontractors shall be entitled at the cost and expense of the Customer, subject to any compliance with any applicable law, to sell or dispose of:

Goods which in the opinion of the Company or Subcontractor cannot be delivered by reason of the Goods being insufficiently or incorrectly addressed or by reason of the Goods not being collected or accepted by the Consignee or for any other reason only after reasonable attempts have been made to contact the customer to confirm the address, and any Perishable goods which in the opinion of the Company or the Subcontractor appear to be deteriorating, if the Customer fails to adequately instruct the Company with respect thereto or fails to pay any costs and expenses necessary to implement the Customer's instructions.

(b) If the Goods are sold pursuant to Clause (a) above, the Company can use the proceeds of sale to discharge any fees and charges owed by the Customer, including the costs of sale. Any balance of any proceeds remaining following such discharge will be remitted to the Customer.

20. Regulation Compliance

The Customer shall exercise all reasonable care and comply with all applicable laws, Government regulations/directions and industry standards including those relating to the packing, carriage, storage, customs clearance, delivery, inspection or other Services in respect of the Goods, and shall provide such information and documents as may be necessary to exercise such care and comply with such laws, regulations and standards. The Company shall not be liable to the Customer or any other party for loss or expense due to the Customer's failure to comply with this provision and the Customer will indemnify the Company for any expense, damage or liability incurred by the Company in so complying.

21. Law and Jurisdiction

(a) Any dispute arising under this Contract shall be governed by the laws of the State of the Company's principal place of business and shall be determined exclusively by that State's courts.

(b) A reference to any law includes a statutory modification, substitution or re-enactment of it.

22. Representations

When the Company has notified the Customer or its agent of the application of these terms and conditions to the Services and the Customer instructs the Company to supply the Services or the Customer otherwise accepts these terms and conditions, the Customer agrees that it did not rely on any representation, promise, warranty or condition of the Company or its Subcontractor not expressly made (in writing) part of this contract.

23. Severance & Waiver

It is hereby agreed that if any provision or part of any provision of this contract is unenforceable, such unenforceability shall not affect the application of any other part of such provision or any other provision hereof. Further, should the Company elect not to exercise any of its rights under this contract, under any other contract/agreement or under law, such election shall not constitute a waiver of any rights relating to any other or subsequent breach by the Customer.

24. Inconsistency & Priority

(a) To the extent of any inconsistency of enforceable terms or a part thereof herein, these terms will prevail over any other terms issued by the Company or Customer.

(b) The use of the Customer's own form is no derogation to these terms and conditions.

25. Trade Practices

(a) These terms and conditions of contract do not affect the Customer's rights pursuant to the ACL if the Customer is a "Consumer" or "Small Business" and this agreement with the Customer is a "Consumer Contract" or "Small Business Contract" – all quoted terms as defined under the ACL. To the extent that any term or a part thereof is rendered inapplicable or void by the application of the ACL or any other legislation, it shall be rendered inapplicable or void only to the extent required to give effect to that legislation but not further.

If the Customer is a "Consumer" or "Small Business" and this agreement is a "Consumer Contract" or "Small Business Contract" as defined under the ACL, the parties agree that:

The restriction of claims and circular indemnity in Clause 4 will not apply except when the Customer chooses our legal liability service.

the time-bars in Clauses 6(g)(i) and (ii) will not apply.

the Company's right to limit or exclude liability in this Agreement is reasonable and not "unfair" in circumstances where prior to the provision of the Services, the parties agree on the allocation of costs, risks and liability where:

the Company has given the Customer a reasonable opportunity to request that the Company take a higher level of risk and liability at a higher cost;
the Customer chooses and agrees to a lower cost for a lower level of risk and liability from the Company; and such practice is not otherwise "unfair" as defined under the ACL.

the Customer's indemnity referred under Clause 11(a)(i) above will not apply to the extent that the claim, loss, damage, payment, fine, expense, duty, tax, impost, outlay, cost or other liability incurred by the Company resulted from the negligence, recklessness or wilful act of the Company, its servants, agents or Subcontractors or is otherwise unreasonable or unreasonably incurred.

the exclusion of rights of the Customer in Clause 8(d) will not apply.

Clause 26(c) below will not apply.

Unless written notification to the contrary is given by the Customer to the Company at or prior to entering into this agreement, the Customer expressly warrants and represents that all or any Services to be supplied by the Company and acquired by the Customer pursuant to this agreement are so supplied and acquired for the purposes of a business, trade, profession or occupation carried on or engaged in by the Customer.

If the carriage of Goods involves an ultimate destination or stop in a country other than the country of departure, a Carriage by Air Convention may be applicable and may govern and in most cases limit the liability of the Carrier in respect of loss, damage or delay to cargo, unless a higher value is declared in advance by the Customer and a supplementary charge paid if required.

26. Reasonable Care/Force Majeure

Where the Company is unable to carry out any obligation under the contract or any loss or damage is caused to the Goods or otherwise due to Force Majeure or any circumstance, matter or thing beyond the Company's exercise of reasonable care, the Company shall be excused and released from such obligation or liability to the extent of such prevention, restriction, impact or interference so caused.
